QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY.

GRAND DISPLAY. PROFESSOR GORS, the well known Pyretechmist having been desired by many influential patrons to devote his second exhibition of fire works to the celebration of the birthday of Her Bracions Majesty, Queen Victoria, he has at a great sacrifice of time and consequently of expense, in remembrance of the warm support and courteous assistance bestowed on him at all places-within the British dominions which he has visited. assented to this loyal suggestion. He accordingly begs leave to announce that his Second Exhibition will take place on Tuesday the 24th inst., on the Parade Ground. The better to de honor to the occasion, and to appreciate the great and wide spread popularity of Her Majesty, it is proposed to make the exhi-bition a public one, suitable arrangements being
